latin america

7- 30 SEP 1983

47 latin american events from soviet viewpoint by vadim bukharov: andropov's statement elicits positive reactions among latin american democratic sectors, mexican socialist leader quoted. venezuelan leader also quoted on andropov's intervention. Nicaraguans fighting cia mercenaries along costa rican and honduran borders. nicaraguan government asks contadora group to send observers to costa rican border. the aggressions on nicaragua are part of the nondeclared war that the united states is waging against this country. pastora has finally admitted that he receives u.s. aid. in addition, u.s. troops are ready to intervene in nicaragua. washington is doing its best to hinder the contadora group peace initiatives; yet it still contends that it is seeking a peaceful settlement to the region's problems. now the united states will send kissinger to central america. this is just another campaign orchestrated to hide the true u.s. aggressive policy behind a smoke curtain. chilean communist party issues manifesto to the people; more repression against the chilean people reported, several persons banished. washington is the main supporter of the chilean dictatorship. nonetheless, the chilean tyranny has also close ties with south africa, a country which will cooperate in the construction of military facilities in chile. world bank meeting ends in washington. the united states wants to adjust its accounts at the expense of developing countries. (10

51 "two words" feature by gaston vargas: chile is going through decisive times while the u.s. state department is sponsoring the dialogue with the opposition. chilean professional rightist politicians have revealed their true colors: they are siding with the regime, upholding the regime's subservient attitude. that is why the yankees decided to implement the dialogue. a propaganda campaign has been orchestrated around the meetings held by the nazi jarpa and the opposition. jarpa is seeking to isolate the communists, the socialists, and the mir. but jarpa's real game is repression, banishment, crime. many will now wonder whether it would be actually possible to engage in a dialogue with jarpa. (7 min: spanchile 2130)

50 Chile: announcers quote news agency france press on chilean communist party manifesto to the chilean people. communists declare that it is not possible to engage in a dialogue with pinochet, remark that pinochet must be ousted as soon as possible, note that the people have learned to fight for their cause, demand that the dictatorship be immediately replaced by a transition government made up of all opposition forces, outline the measures that the transition government should adopt. communists also demand dismantling of the intelligence center, investigation into cases of missing persons, moratorium of foreign debt, reactivation of the economy, creation of new jobs. 53 volodia teitelboim's commentary: the entire world is closely following events in chile, where the people have risen to put an end to the fascist era. as the hour of liberation nears, worldwide solidarity grows broader. Teitelboim notes that a majority of chileans oppose pinochet. Points out that the people are now protesting every day in different ways: pan beating, carhorn concerts, turning out lights, school absenteeism. teitelboim outlines repressive measures the government adopted, remarking that leader gabriel valdes discontinued dialogue stresses that order will be restored in chile only after fascism is eradicated. teitelboim expresses gratitude for international solidarity with chile, remarks that freedom will soon be restored in chile, notes that chile, like nicaragua, will struggle against the yankees, who are waging a nondeclared war against nicaragua and who placed pinochet in power.
